

Compete in the Bridge Olympic eSports Week

Come and take part in the inaugural Bridge Olympic Esports Week Tournament, that starts on June 19, right here on BBO.

This event offers a unique chance to become the Bridge Olympic eSports Week International Champion and earn a trip to Marrakech for the World Championships, including flights and accommodation.

Bridge may not be an official discipline, but it is being showcased at the Olympics eSports Week in Singapore, and so will reach a broader audience than ever, bringing more people to the game.

Be part of the Olympic Bridge story

Get prepped and ready for a week long Olympic adventure from June 19 to 25. The tournament is split into two halves with the qualification phase (followed by a rest day), then the finals. Mark your calendars and take note of the following schedule.

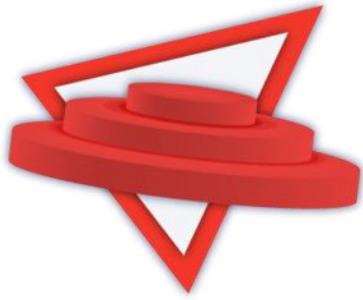

Qualification Phase (June 19-22)

- Individual tournaments, you play with 3 robots.
- Total of 40 games (10 per day) over the four days.
- Daylong style, each tournament consisting of 6 boards.
- The entry fee for each tournament is 0.50 BB$.

- To be ranked you need to play at least 5 games.
- To qualify for the Final Round, you will need an average score of 56% from your best 5 tournaments.

Rest Day (June 23)

This will be your opportunity to have a rest and get prepared for the Final Round.

Final Round (June 24-25)

- The finals are free to play but only open to those who qualify.
- 8 tournaments of 8 boards.
- All tournaments are available for 48 hours.
- Your best 4 scores will count toward your final ranking.

How to play

You can start playing at any time during the Qualification Phase. Qualification tournaments can be played for 24 hours, from midnight to midnight US Central time. Finals tournaments can be played for 48 hours, from midnight to midnight US Central time. To start playing, pick any Bridge Olympic eSport tournament, click on it, and then click on the 'Register' button. You can play at any time within that 24 hour period. You don't have to play each tournament in one go – you can stop if you need to, and resume later.
