

Q1. Is a Negative Double (X) for penalties?

Q2. What does a Negative Double show?

Q3. How many HCP do you need to make a Negative Double?

- a) at level 1
- b) at level 2
- c) at level 3

Q4. What does a Neg X promise after the bidding goes:

1♣ - 1♠ - X?

Q5. If Opener responds to your Neg X by bidding the opponents' suit, what is he showing?

Q6. How many HCP do you need to Double (X) a 1NT opening bid?

Q7. If your contract goes down 2 tricks Doubled and you are vulnerable, what is the penalty score?

Q8. If the bidding goes:

N S E W
1NT - P - 2♣ - X

What is the meaning of "X"?

Q9. If the bidding goes:

N	E	S	W
1♥	1♠	2♣	4♠
P	P	?

What should South do and why?

Q10. If your contract is 4SX (non vulnerable) making 1 overtrick, what is your score?

A2. Shortage in the bid suits.

A1. No. Unless it follows a 1NT overcall

A4. 4+ cards in Hearts

A3.

- a) level 1 6+ HCP
- b) level 2 8+ HCP
- c) level 3 10+ HCP

A6. 16+ HCP

A5. 19+ HCP and is Forcing to Game.

A8. Lead that suit Partner!

It's a lead directing Double of a Conventional bid, (Stayman)

A7. -500.

-200 for the 1st trick +
-300 for the 2nd trick

A10.

Score = 690.

Tricks bid and made 4x60	=240
Plus one overtrick 1x100	=100
Bonus points for gam	=300
doubled contract bonus	= 50

A9. Double. North has opened 12-19 .
 . HCP East has overcalled 8+HCP .
 .South responded at the 2 level 10+ HCP
 . N/S have the majority of the points.
 . Double the sacrifice bid by E/W