Unlike politicians the SBU keeps its word. We said after our first visit to Paphos that we would return. The overall consensus of this destination was excellent. The hotel is well placed on the front with a nice walk into town. In the hotel the staff were friendly and helpful, catering very reasonable plus a good number of restaurants nearby if you want a change. The playing area was good. Paphos of course has the famous Roman mosaics plus other areas of interest. Looking forward to enjoying your company on this excellent SBU Congress.
